Piano lessons

Individual Tuition at Chew Valley School

The Music Department is pleased to be able to offer individual Piano tuition. Piano lessons will suit those students who would like to learn to play for their own pleasure or wellbeing in addition to those wanting to go down the traditional piano lesson route often leading to exams.

What happens in lessons?

Through fun exercises and activities, students will learn how to play the piano. They will have the opportunity to learn how to read music and develop listening skills. Students will work towards being able to play their favourite pieces of music and follow a recognised exam syllabus.

Who will teach it?

Rhian Gordon has over 25 years' experience of teaching Music at Chew Valley School. She has a BA (Hons) degree, a PGCE and ABRSM Grade 8 in Piano and Singing. Specialising in piano teaching for beginners.

Julie Payne, a graduate of the Royal Northern College of Music, PPNCM and BMus (Hons), She is an alumna of Chew Valley School. Specialising in intermediate and advanced players.

What does it cost?

20 minutes individual £14/lesson.

30 minutes individual lesson - £20/lesson.

Lessons are normally weekly and during term times. A different curriculum lesson is missed every week. The teacher will invoice parents/carers via email at the start of term. A parental contract of terms and conditions will be emailed before lessons begin.

The school can offer some financial support for students who are on the Pupil Premium register. Please email hkenyon@chewvalleyschool.co.uk to apply for financial support.
